

FLYING TO CHATTANOOGA

For those traveling by air to the Annual Meeting, the Chattanooga Airport (CHA) is close and convenient. Primary connecting hubs are Atlanta (ATL), Dallas-Ft. Worth (DFW), Chicago O’Hare (ORD), and Charlotte (CLT). There are also limited daily nonstop flights to/from Detroit (DTW), Houston Intercontinental (IAH), Newark (EWR), New York Laguardia (LGA), and Washington National (DCA).

Note that the nonstop flight to/from Denver (DEN) only operates on Saturdays.

Depending on traffic, Chattanooga is about a 2-hour drive from the airports in Atlanta, Nashville (BNA), or Knoxville (TYS) on I-75 or I-24.

Pro tip: Driving between Chattanooga and BNA avoids downtown Nashville, while driving to/from ATL requires going through or around midtown Atlanta.
